Christians of all denominations have dropped the first verse as a mere prologue and make their first commandment out of the third verse: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Jews have generally read this portion (their Second Commandment) literally and simply rejected the worship of any gods in place of their own god.

"Thou shalt have no other gods before Me" is one of the Ten Commandments found in the Hebrew Bible at Exodus 20:2 and Deuteronomy 5:6. It is the central tenet of the Abrahamic religions and prohibits the religion's followers from worshipping gods other than the Lord. The sin of worshipping another god is called idolatry. Historically, the
